Appendix Response to Item 9

Item 9: Describe fully the activities the registrant engages in or proposes to engage in on behalf of the above foreign principal.

The retainer contract once agreed and executed allows registrant to negotiate a contract to render services to and be compensated by FramanAgridev with the goals of: Provide strategic advice and guidance regarding avenues for establishing normalized relations between the governments of Nigeria and Israel.
Conduct research and analysis of political, economic, and diplomatic factors that impact the potential inclusion of Nigeria into the Abraham Accords framework.
Advise on cultural and historical sensitivities relevant to the normalization process.
Identify and engage with key stakeholders, policymakers, and decision-makers in the United States Government and other relevant international bodies.

Provide recommendations on diplomatic approaches, talking points, and priority issues to advance the normalization agenda.
Represent FramanAgridev's interests during initial discussions or exploratory talks, always working within agreed-upon guidelines.
Serve as the point of contact for all U.S. governmental, Israeli, or Abraham Accords-related inquiries regarding the initiative.
Maintain continuous availability to represent the Foreign Principal's interests, ensuring clarity and consistency of messaging across all engagements.

Appendix Response to Item 10

Item 10: Will the activities on behalf of the above foreign principal include political activities as defined in Section 1(o) of the Act. If yes, describe all such political activities indicating, among other things, the relations, interests or policies to be influenced together with the means to be employed to achieve this purpose. The response must include, but not be limited to, activities involving lobbying, promotion, perception management, public relations, economic development, and preparation and dissemination of informational materials.

The registrant, Jack Barcroft, proposes to engage in political activities on behalf of FramanAgridev aimed at influencing relations and policy discussions between the government of Nigeria and the government of Israel, as well as the government of the United States, with the goal of securing Nigeria's inclusion in the Abraham Accords. These activities include direct and indirect efforts to shape perceptions, build diplomatic bridges, and foster economic and political cooperation. The registrant will advise on and support the development of a comprehensive strategy for opening and maintaining communications with relevant policymakers and diplomats, including but not limited to members of the U.S. Congress, executive branch officials, and representatives of the Israeli government. The registrant's activities may include lobbying efforts within the boundaries of applicable U.S. laws, such as meeting with officials to present the objectives of FramanAgridev, emphasizing the mutual economic, security, and cultural benefits of Nigerian-Israeli normalization, and responding to questions or concerns from these officials.

In addition to direct lobbying or diplomatic outreach, the registrant will assist with perception management and public relations activities to create a favorable environment for negotiations. This may involve crafting talking points, drafting and distributing press releases or informational materials that highlight the positive aspects of Nigerian-Israeli relations, and working with media or third-party experts to share this perspective. The registrant will also advise on potential economic development initiatives or collaborations that would strengthen the rationale for Nigeria's participation in the Abraham Accords, including trade, security, and cultural exchange opportunities.

To achieve these purposes, the registrant will employ methods such as preparing briefing documents, arranging and attending in-person or virtual meetings with key stakeholders, conducting background research and analysis, and maintaining ongoing communications with government representatives, advisors, and other stakeholders in both the public and private sectors. These efforts will include the preparation and dissemination of informational materials—such as position papers, policy briefs, or white papers—that present FramanAgridev's goals and the mutual benefits of normalization. The registrant will also coordinate with existing diplomatic channels, non-governmental organizations, and relevant think tanks or policy institutes to bolster the credibility and effectiveness of the campaign.

All such political activities will be conducted with full transparency to the client and under the terms of any applicable U.S. and international regulations, including potential compliance with the Foreign Agents Registration Act (FARA), to ensure lawful and ethical engagement at every step. The registrant will provide progress reports and updates to FramanAgridev, outlining each significant outreach effort, the substance of any discussions or negotiations, and the degree to which the overall goals are being met.
